EFFECT OF APPROVAL

The Planned Development amendment including the preliminary development plan as approved, the incorporated narrative and all conditions imposed, if any, shall constitute the land use authorization for the property. Such authorization shall remain in effect for a period of one (1) year unless a longer period is granted by the City Council upon the recommendation of the Planning Commission. Uses not specifically identified in the preliminary development plan shall not be permitted. All improvements and uses shall be in conformity with this approval. During the period of effectiveness of the Preliminary Development Plan, the applicant shall be permitted to submit one (or more if the project is to be proposed in phases) site plan applications seeking Final Development Plan approval pursuant to Section 1000b.9.

In the event that an application for a Final Development Plan is not submitted within the time limits set forth in the approved Preliminary Concept Development Plan and any extensions thereof that may be permitted and approved, the approval granted under this Article shall expire, and the approved PD shall be declared null and void. The underlying zoning shall prevail on the subject property.

The applicant shall record an affidavit with the Register of Deeds which shall contain the following:

- Date of approval of the PD by the City Council.
- Legal description of the property.
- A statement that the property shall be developed in accordance with the approved PD preliminary development plan and any conditions imposed by the City Council or Planning Commission unless an amendment thereto is duly approved by the City.
